54 William-st., the organization presided over by Carl Schurz, has been watching with interest the reports as to certain inducements said to have been held out by Lemuel E. Quigg to various bodies of public servants to support General Tracy financially and with their votes. The scrutiny is likely to result in action being taken to put an end to what are alleged to be flagrant violations of the State law on the part of the leaders of the Republican machine. attention of the Civil Service Reform Association is being particularly devoted to the proceedings of Mr. Quing.

The published statement that Mr. Quigg has promised the police, firemen and letter-carriers to raise their salaries if they will vote "straight" was brought to his attention yesterday, and he was asked if the story was true. His answer was: "As I understand it the firemen, policemen and letter-carriers are citizens with votes; and I shall conduct such correspondence with them as I choose, considering it nobody's business but mine and theirs."

George McAneny, secretary of the Civil Service Reform Association, said to a reporter yesterday: "The statement has been publicly made and not as yet denied, that the chairman of the Republican City Campaign Committee has promised to promote the passage of bills providing increases of salary, or establishing pension funds, for letter-carriers, firemen and policemen, in return for the support these public employes may give the Republican candidate for the Mayoralty. It may be timely to point out that a bargain of this sort would, under the laws of New-York State, constitute 'bribery or attempted bribery, as the circumstances may be, and that the person proposing it may be punished, on conviction, by both fine and imprisonment. The statutory provision is as follows: (Section 14, Chapter 354, Laws of 1883): lows: (Section: 14. Chapter 334. Laws of 1883):

"Whoever, being a public officer, or having or claiming to have ary authority or influence for effecting the nomination, public employment, confirmation, promotion, removal or increase or decrease of saiary of any public officer, shall corruptly use, or promise, or threaten to use any such authority or influence, directly or indirectly, in order to coerce or persuade the vote or political action of any citizen, or the removal, discharge or promotion of any officer or public employe, or upon any other corrupt consideration, shall be guilty of bribery or of an attempt at bribery. And every person found guilty of such bribery or an attempt to commit the same, as aforesaid, shall, upon conviction thereof, be liable to be punished by a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $2,000, or to be imprisoned not less than ten days nor more than two years, or to both said fine and said imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

From evidence now in the possession of the association, it is already plain that the statute prohibiting the solicita-tion of political contributions from public em-ployes has been violated. Section 41 of the Penal Code contains the following clause:

"Any person who sends or presents any political assessment, subscription or contribution, or requests payment of any such (public) officer or employe, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

WOULD HAVE BEEN REJECTED ANYWAY. THREE LETTERS SHOWING HOW THE MACHINE REGARDED LOW BEFORE THE CONVENTION.

At the mass-meeting of the Seth Low Club of the Ninth Ward of Brooklyn last evening in the John-sto. Buildars, Frank L. Babbott made public three etters bearing upon the disputed point concerning he responsibility for the failure of the Republican organization, the Brooklyn Citizens Committee of Fifty and the Citizens Union to come to a decision on the Union candidate. The letters are made pub-lic at this time especially to show that the Platt organization was at no time willing to consider Mr. Low as a candidate on its ticket, even if Mr. Low were to withdraw his acceptance of the inde-pendent nomination. They were written to Mr. Babbott by Henry W. Maxwell, Alexander E. Orr and James McKeen, three members of the Citizens Committee's sub-committee on conference, and are

In part as follows:

New-York, October 15, 1897.

Dear Mr. Babbott: I received your letter to-day in regard to the question of the nomination of Seth Low and size an inquiry if, in my judgment, at any time there was a chance to get the Republican leaders to nominate Mr. Low.

I have been present at a great many conferences of the leaders of the Republican organization since the start in July, and have concluded that at no time would they agree to nominate Mr. Low.

I recall one instance of a conference heid at the Manhattan Hotel, when I put the direct question to Mr. Quigg and Mr. Gibbs in these words: "Mr. Quigg, is there any condition or circumstance under which you and Mr. Gibbs would say that you would favor Mr. Low as a Republican nominee at the convention to be held September 28?" Mr. Quigg hesitated, and then said: "You know, I am president of the Republican County Committee, and you also know that the Republican convention has not been called, and therefore I could not of course say what they really would do," in which answer Mr. Gibbs agreed. I then said: "How is it that you cannot say what they will not do" (namely, that you will not inderse the nomination of Mr. Low, if made by the Clitzens Union before the date of the Republican convention?" I am satisfied from all the conversation we had at conference that they would never, under any circumstances, have consented to Mr. Low as their candidate.

HENRY W. MAXWELL. New-York, October 16, 1897.

HENRY W. MAXWELL.

New-York, October 16, 1837.

My Dear Mr. Babbott: In answer to your letter of yesterday, just received, I beg to reply that I was present at three conferences of Mr. Quigg's committee. At all of them, Mr. Quigg presided as chairmar, and each time several prominent members of the machine Republicans were present. At none of these meetings did Mr. Quigg or any of the members of his committee give any intimation that Seth Low would be an acceptable candidate of the Republican party at the coming election. On the contrary, Mr. Quigg and several of his colleagues spoke of him with extreme bitterness, some charging him with what they pleased to term the crime of having voted against his party on one or two occasions, and virtually claiming that he was not a Republican. Yours very truly,

A. E. ORR.

October 25, 1897. Frank L. Babbott. Esq.

My Dear Sir' in answer to your inquiry, I can only venture to give my own conclusions from the various conferences had with the leaders of the New-York City Republican organizations and others. The details of these conferences would be too voluminous. The refusal of the Citizens Union to confer was not a reason, but only a pretext, for not accepting Mr. Low. Several days before the Carnegie Hall Convention was held, and again at the meeting of the committee from the convention, we were unequivocally told that, even Mr. Low should resulnd his acceptance of the independent nomination, he would not be taken up by the convention, even though he should be the choice of the Conference Committee. Yours very truly.

General Tracy began by saving that the fown was on fire for the Republican party, and that there would be a rusting Republican victory on Election Day. The pecule were determined to prevent the return of Tammany to power, he said. He declared that if Low had proved true to his professed principles the Republicans of Brooklyn would not have been defeated in 1833.

"We're mous to elect Low all right!" yelled an old man in the middle of the house.

"Not at this election," said the General. "He will fail of election by at least one hundred thousand votts. I aim not talking without authority of figures to prove what I say. After I have finished I will call on Lieutenant Governor Woodruff to give authentic figures on the state of the Republican vote in Kings Courts.

When Mr. Woodruff stepped forward he wore a broad smile. Then he gave the figures.

"We have seen 111,000 voters," he began impressively, "out of 203,000. This leaves $2,000 to be can vassed. By Saturday we shall have the figures complete. We find that Low will receive out of these 111,000 just about 10.05. Van Wyck 32,515. "I can hardly believe that such a statement is true, because I have such faith in the honesty and independence of the uniformed force that I feel sure their vote is not a venal one, to be bartered away for any candidate. Every fireman in the department knows that he is free to exercise his right of suffrage in the way he thinks best, and I should indeed be surprised and extremely sorry to learn that any man or set of men could rightfully claim ownership or control of the votes of the Fire Department."

One hundred and eleven of the most prominent drygoods men of New-York signed a statement indorsing Seth Low for Mayor. This action was taken regardless of party ties, and a copy of the circular was gent to the Citizens Union last evening. It roads as follows:

everything else must be deferred for the time."

At Republican headquarters it was said yesterday that the meeting in the Grand Central Palace to-night, at which W. Bourke Cockran is announced to speak, will take place. It is not deemed wise to give up this meeting lest the total collapse of the organization forces would become too painfully plain. In the midst of althese toppling and falling hopes and plans Lemuel E. Quigg continues to whistle to keep up his courage, and from time to time makes prediccourage, and from time to time makes predic-tions. He announced yesterday that Seth Low could not get a plurality of votes in any Assem-bly district, and added: "The Republican or-ganization has carefully canvassed the vote in every election district of every borough in Greater New-York. Several Assembly districts have been canvassed twice, and some three times. Each of these shows that Tracy is gain-ing, and that Low's strength is waning. There are only two Assembly districts in which Mr. Low will have any substantial support. These Low will have any substantial support. These are the XXVIIth and the XXIXth. We shall carry New-York by about the plurality that Black obtained over Porter last year."

IN BROOKLYN. Half a column in "The New-York Sun" yesterday morning was devoted to a thrilling account of an enthusiastic and largely attended Tracy meeting in the Tenth Ward of Brooklyn. Details were given o show that the meeting was extremely enthusias tic, and the impression convered was that the Tenth Ward is affame with Tracy sentiment. After waiting in despair for the crowd to appear, and after keeping the band busily engaged in an attempt to draw a throng, the speakers left the place in disgust and held no meeting. W. F. Heissenbut tel is the authority for this statument.

Advantage was apparently taken of the fact that the meeting was held on an evening when newspaper men were busy at many large meetings, and when their attention was attracted to more interesting places. In its inability to find Tracy newsof any value, "The Sun" built up a large story or nothing, and it has done this on several occasions of a like nature.

didate for Assembly from the XIXth District, and Homer Folks, candidate for Alderman. Dr. Smith's speech was a stirring one, and he made a special appeal to Republicans to support the made a special appeal to Republicans to support the ideas their party laid down in 1891. He also dwelt apon the fact that Tammany was striking many virtuous poses on its platform. Perhaps the Tiger is repeniant, he said, and added that there was never a better time to send a man to glory than when he was repeniant.

Mr. Van Norden spoke with utmost kindness of General Tracy, saying: "He has long been my friend, and I honor him. But no man can touch pitch without being defiled." In speaking of Mr Platt, he said: "That gentleman reminds me of the department-store that had a bargain day and hung out the sign, "Don't go elsewhere to be cheated." One in here."

Economy In -Boys' Clothing.

One way to lessen the cost of Boys' Clothing without cheapening the quality, is to buy direct of the manufacturer—save all the usual intermediate profits. In this way our
